

The building is a two-story structure. The ground floor is constructed of red brick and features two windows with black metal grates. The upper floor is under construction, showing a wooden frame of vertical studs and horizontal joists. A wide overhang covers the front porch area, supported by two large columns wrapped in plywood. A worker in a grey shirt and blue jeans is standing on the porch, surrounded by construction materials. The roof is a flat, dark-colored metal roof.

In the background, several vehicles are parked in a lot. A silver sedan is prominent in the foreground, with a white SUV and a blue car behind it. A utility pole with power lines is also visible near the cars.

Yellow metal scaffolding is positioned on the left side of the building, near the entrance. It is used for accessing the upper levels of the structure during construction.

Several long wooden planks are laid out on the ground in front of the building, ready for use in the construction process.

A large black plastic bag is lying on the ground in the foreground, possibly containing debris or construction materials.

A stack of wooden planks is piled up on the ground in the foreground, near the corner of the building.

More wooden planks are leaning against the brick wall of the building, indicating ongoing construction work.

Two satellite dishes are mounted on the roof of the building, one on the main structure and one on an adjacent section to the right.
